To the Trustees of Trinity College:

In accordance with Section Three of Article Fifteen of the Statutes of the College, I submit herewith the report of the Librarian for the year ending June 30, 1933.

The Library has been kept open fifty-nine hours per week, and the usual statistics in regard to attendance are given:

ATTENDANCE ANNUAL SUMMARY

Year	1928-29	1929-30	1930-31	1931-32	1932-33
	11,526	11,975	12,943	21,945	19,937

Though there was a small increase in the number of students in College over the preceding year, yet the attendance decreased about ten per cent. Why this should be does not appear, but it is not surprising when we remember that last year there was an increase of seventy-five per cent in attendance. Neglecting the unusual, and unexplained, experience of last year, this year's attendance figures show a gratifying increase in the use of the Library.

GRANT FROM THE CARNEGIE CORPORATION

We have purchased during the year with the Grant from the Carnegie Corporation 1262 volumes.

Needless to say, this generous gift is of the greatest value and usefulness to the Library. It enables us to purchase many books long needed, and also to buy many of the newer books, which without it, we could not afford. Though every Department of instruction in the College feels the benefit, this year especial attention has perhaps been given to the needs of the Departments of Music, Art, and History.

However, this generous and timely grant should not make us unmindful of new endowment Funds, the income of which should be used for the purchase of books and periodicals. When we received the grant, we added some twenty-five much needed periodicals to our list, but we have no funds with which to complete the files of these publications. Furthermore, the grant runs for only two years more, though naturally we hope it will be renewed. We need not less than $200,000, the income of which should be used for the increase of the Library.

INCREASE OF THE LIBRARY

During the year, there have been added to the Library 4566 volumes and 4456 pamphlets, a total of 9022 items. Of these 2072 volumes were purchased. All the pamphlets and 2494 volumes were presented. Included in the purchases are 170 volumes of unbound Periodicals, and the 1262 volumes purchased with the grant from the Carnegie Corporation. Of the volumes added to the Library, 1854 are bound and 957 unbound. It should be added that most of the volumes of unbound periodicals and some of the other volumes will be bound during the summer.

It is obvious that, but for the generous grant of the Carnegie Corporation and the generous appropriation of the Trustees from the income of the Morgan Fund, we should be unable to purchase even the books essential to the proper conduct of the work of instruction. Books cost more and many more of them are demanded than were needed ten years ago. Growth in the numbers of students and faculty will still further strain our slender resources.

Grateful mention should be made of the gift of some $85 by President Ogilby from the profits of the Book Store to enable us to purchase some fifty volumes of the publications of the Yale University Press kindly offered to us at a very favorable price by the Press.

Among the more important purchases of the year may be mentioned: Propylaen Kunstgeschichte, 22 vols.; Shaw, Manual of Meteorology, 4 vols.; Thomas Middleton, Works, ed. Bullen, 8 vols.; Tilney, The Brain from Ape to Man, 2 vols.; Encyclopaedia of the Social Sciences, Vols. 8-10; Rupert Hughes, George Washington, 3 vols.; Nicolay & Hay, Abraham Lincoln, 10 vols.; George Washington, Writings, Vols. 1-8; Dict. of American Biography, Vols. 10-11; Masters of Modern Art, 20 vols.; Mahan, Influence of Sea Power on the French Revolution, 2 vols.; Harriet Martineau, Autobiography, 3 vols.; Klassiker der Kunst, 18 vols.; Richard Muther, History of Modern Painting, 4 vols.; Bushnell, Chinese Art, 2 vols.; Anzengruber, Werke, 4 vols.; von Scheffel, Werke, 3 vols.; Rosegger, Werke, 6 vols.; James Madison, Writings, 9 vols.; James Monroe, Writings, 7 vols.; Jefferson Davis, Writings, 10 vols.; Duhamel, Oeuvres, 5 vols.; Jammes, Oeuvres, 5 vols.; International Critical Tables, Vol. VI-XII; Brown, Tables of the Motion of the Moon, 6 vols.; Molinier, Les Sources de l'Histoire de France, 6 vols.; Baikie, History of Egypt, 2 vols.; Carlyle, History of Mediaeval Political Theory, 3 vols.; Henderson, Stonewall Jackson, 2 vols.; Crowe & Cavalcaselle, History of Painting in Italy, 3 vols.; and Short Oxford English Dictionary, 2 vols.

GIFTS

Appendix II gives the names of donors during the year; to these should be added the names of donors of current periodicals given in Appendix I.

The largest single gift of the year was some 1200 volumes, the bequest of Burton Mansfield, D.C.L., 1924, who also made the College a sharer in his residuary estate. For the most part, the books consist of excellent editions of important English and American authors. Though, naturally, the larger part of these items duplicate sets already in the Library, in many cases they enable us to replace worn sets or to replace our sets with better ones. In many cases, also, much needed and very useful second copies are secured. There are a goodly number of books on art, as might be expected, since Mr. Mansfield's collection of the works of modern artists, especially of American artists, was noteworthy. Altogether, the gift is a most useful one, and Mr. Mansfield's thought of the Library and of the College is much appreciated.

As always, a number of members of the faculty have given useful books, including President Ogilby, and Professors Babbitt, Bissonnette, Buell, Costello, Kleene, and Shepard.

Several of the aulmni have remembered the Library, among them the Rev. Melville K. Bailey, '79; Joseph Buffington, '75; Joseph H. Ehlers, '14; Karl H. Fenning, '03; Benjamin W. Morris, '93; and Charles G. Woodward, '98. Professor I. T. Beckwith, Ph.D., D.D., gave twenty-eight volumes in continuation of his former gifts. John Anderson, Jr., Esquire, gave us a copy of his handsome book "The Unknown Turner". Newton C. Brainard gave us the parts of the "Journal of Egyptian Archaeology" as they appeared. Louis H. Cornish gave us a typewritten copy of his careful genealogical account of the Ancestry of Chester Adams, a former Trustee and generous benefactor of the College. Miss Eleanor Sharpe gave us a very clean and crisp copy of "The True Life, a Poem Delivered before the House of Convocation [of Trinity College] by the Rev. Ralph Hoyt, M.A.," in 1849.

CATALOGUING

The removal of books from the Reading Room to the stacks to make room for new books, together with the work of cataloguing the unusually large number of accessions, has made the year a very hard one in this department of the work of the Library. It has been accomplished, however, with reasonable despatch. The services of Mr. James Goldin Tobin have been of great value, both directly and by releasing Miss Bailey and other members of the staff for greater attention to the work of cataloguing. However, our staff is still very inadequate, and it is hoped that we may soon add at least one more trained helper.

The work of the year now closing may be thus summarized:

Books catalogued . . . . .	3644
Pamphlets catalogued . . . . .	321
Books recatalogued . . . . .	73
Books reclassified . . . . .	733
<hr/>
Total of items handled . . . . .	4771

Reviewing the work of the last seventeen and one-half years, we have the following figures:

Number of books catalogued . . . . .	51,322
Number of pamphlets catalogued . . . . .	4,357
Number of books recatalogued . . . . .	30,624
Number of pamphlets recatalogued . . . . .	1,088
Number of books reclassified . . . . .	35,012
Number of pamphlets reclassified . . . . .	1,152
<hr/>
Total of items handled . . . . .	123,555
New cards added to catalogue . . . . .	153,856
Total number of old cards altered . . . . .	42,420

BINDING

As usual, the greater part of the appropriation for binding has been spent in caring for current periodicals. However, the funds available enable us to bind a considerable number of other volumes. It is of the highest importance that the appropriation be continued.

FUNDS

The need for new Funds has been discussed in the paragraph of this report dealing with the Grant of the Carnegie Corporation. In a word, we need not less than $200,000, the income of which is to be used for book purchases. We need also funds for administration to enable us to increase the staff to keep pace with the growth of the collection and with the increase in the number of faculty and students.

Additional room in the Library building for proper working quarters and for additional stacks is imperatively needed. The removal of duplicates and of obsolete material from the basement floor and the utilizing of the space thus gained has relieved the congestion temporarily, but for not more than two or three years at the longest. The only possible solution of our problem is the enlargement of the building to provide space for additional stacks. When this is done, room for not less than 500,000 volumes should be provided. Libraries invariably grow far beyond calculations.

THE STAFF

Miss Louise M. Bailey, as Cataloguer, and Mrs. Harold Schatz, as Assistant, have given faithful and highly commendable service. Mr. James Goldin Tobin, as General Assistant, or "man of all work," has been invaluable. His interest, industry, and intelligence cannot be too highly commended. We shall do well to retain him until he goes on to larger opportunities elsewhere.

The Student Assistants have been: David Stedman Harris, '34; Andrew Onderdonk, '34; Donald Earl Snowden, '34; Charles James Sutherland, '35; Herbert Eaton Todd, '35; Arthur Wellington Hazenbush, '35; and Herbert Ralph Scull, '36. All have worked well, and deserve a word of appreciation.

THE LIBRARY COMMITTEE

The interest and helpfulness of the members of the Library Committee cannot be too highly commended. President Ogilby is at all times more than ready to respond to requests for counsel and advice. His gifts of money from the profits of the book store have been generous and most helpful. Professor Costello's knowledge of books is always available. He gives without stint of his time and labor to the selection of books, especially perhaps to those to be purchased on the Grant of the Carnegie Corporation. He is simply invaluable. Professor Allen and Professor Bissonnette make many helpful suggestions in regard to purchases and in regard to matters of administration. The interest and helpfulness of all the members of the Committee merit the gratitude of all who use the Library and especially of the Librarian.

CONCLUSION

At present, with the aid of the Grant of the Carnegie Corporation the needs of the College, both students and faculty, for new books and periodicals are more nearly being met than ever before, probably, in the history of the College. But we need new Funds, we need additions to the staff, and we need more room for both workers and books. These things must be provided if the Library is to meet as nearly as it is doing at present the needs of those who depend on the Library for the successful carrying on of their work, to say nothing of meeting those needs more adequately. Will not the friends of the College meet these needs at no very distant day?

All of which is respectfully submitted.

ARTHUR ADAMS, Librarian.
